THE STAR

Volume Twenty-One

1925

PUBLISHED ANNUALLY BY THE LITERARY SOCIETIES
of
HENDERSON-BROWN COLLEGE
ARKADELPHIA, ARK.

1925

Foreword

We submit to you this, the twenty-first volume of The Star, as our best efforts. We have attempted to make it a simple record rather than a crowning effort in Literature or Art. We have worked hard and faithfully to make it worthy of your approval. If it has merit, that merit is yours; if it has faults, those faults are our misfortunes. We have no apologies to offer, because we have done our best. Therefore, O Critic, cast not thy searing eye upon this, our best efforts, but think of the part you have played in making this record, that the contents may be the more appreciated by you.

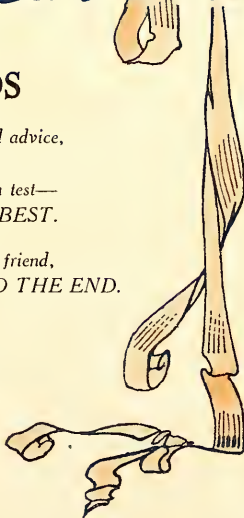

Dedication

TO OUR DADS

*Some dads give good cheer and good advice,
Some dads are really mighty nice;
But there's just one who stands each test—
And that's my own—HE IS THE BEST.*

*My dearest companion, comforter, friend,
Not one for a season, but—ON TO THE END.*

Alma Mater

*"In our heart of hearts rests a sacred retreat
Where is shined with youth-time its memories sweet,
Of the friends at college, faithful and true—
Oh, dear college comrades, we're loyal to you.*

*There was ne'er a time in our lives so free
As the joyous days at H. B. C.
Days all chastely golden, gaily sweet—
Beloved days at our college with joys all too fleet.*

*Through chill mists of advancing years,
Shines the light of our Alma Mater's
Radiant brow, pure and bright,
Showing us the blessing of life's service fair—
O, great Alma Mater, with mission so rare."*

WILLIA CLEDA OLDS, Philomathean Amity, Arkansas
 CANDIDATE FOR A.B., B.O.

Society Officer, Three Quarters; Member Women Student's Association Council, '25; Member French Club; Republican Club; Tau Eta Alpha; President Tau Eta Alpha, '25.

When we think of Cleda, we always think of poise and dignity, for certainly Cleda possesses these two qualities. The kind of girl who is loved by everyone; always steady and dependable; one who never fails to do what is expected of her—that kind of a girl is Cleda, and her college is proud of her. She never becomes excited over the unexpected turns of college life, but calmly performs her tasks. Thus her future must be happy and successful.

DALLAS H. DALTON, Garland Stephens, Arkansas
 CANDIDATE FOR B.S.

Our chief executive, Dallas Dalton, has guided his tribe through a most eventful year.

Our Dallas: As a student, persistent, resourceful; as an athlete, fearless, unconquerable; as a lover, we predict success.

Some say the Reddie blanket, so valiantly won, is destined to adorn a bachelor's den, but really, it would be more logical to say—a love nest.

DORIS MARKS OWENS, Philomathean North Little Rock, Arkansas
 CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Basketball, '23, '24, '25; Society Officer, Three Quarters; Winner Inter-Society Essay Contest, '24; "Oracle" Staff, '24, '25; Secretary Pep Association, '25.

If brilliant minds bring success, continuous will be her succeeding. If a loving heart makes for happiness, she will be joyously happy. If a generous nature is better than riches, she will be wealthy in giving. If a magnetic personality foretells friendships, is it not enough to say that everyone loves her?

IRENE PINNIX, Philomathean Murfreesboro, Arkansas

CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Society Officer, Three Quarters; Delta Alpha Chi; Spanish Club; Sons and Daughters Club, '23. Immediately upon her arrival at Henderson-Brown College, "Senorita" took the trail to our hearts, and there may she long remain. Possessed of those rare qualities, hopefulness, cheerfulness, and an abiding faith in those with whom she is associated, she greets everyone as a true friend.

DODSON ISON LONARD, Gamma Sigma Foreman, Arkansas

CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Society Officer, Three Quarters; President Society, '25; Track, '24; "Oracle" Staff, '25; "Star" Staff, '25. "Dod" is a rare man. One look at his benign countenance will explain why girls leave home. His unlimited supply of "rural wit" keeps those with whom he is associated in an uproar. However, in his more sober moments he shows signs of being an intellectual genius, and in the registrar's office he has an enviable record.

GEORGIA BELLE BURNETT, Upsilon Phi DeQueen, Arkansas

CANDIDATE FOR A.B., B.M.

Winner Scholarship Medal in Voice, '24; Vice-President Literary Society, '24; Society Officer, Three Quarters; Women Students' Association Council, '23, '24. "George" is the songbird of the class; she can sing her way into the heart of any man or beast, and if it is endowment we need, we know the girl to call on. Full of life, wit, and charm, she has played a large part in making the class what it is.

CHARLES ELISE REID, Upsilon Phi Delight, Arkansas

CANDIDATE FOR A.B., B.O.

Society Officer, Five Quarters; President Society, '25; Inter-Society Reading Contest, '23; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '24, '25; "Star" Staff, '25; Vice-President Senior Class, '25.
The rarest gem of Delight, and her college too.

Elise is a friend to all, and is never found wanting when some deed of friendship is needed. Whatever her aspirations may be, surely they cannot fall short of a master. Her strong personality, grace, and dignity make her appearance on the stage as natural as in the classroom, and in expression she is unexcelled. A senior of whom the class is proud to boast. May she always be master of herself.

DAVID W. LASATER, Gamma Sigma Morrilton, Arkansas

CANDIDATE FOR B.S.

Society Officer, Two Quarters; President Society, '25; Assistant Editor "The Star," '24; Editor "The Star," '25; Inter-Collegiate Debater, '22; Inter-Society Debater, '23, '24, '25.

Although David is endowed with a silver tongue, he is by no means a singer. The easy, seemingly care-free, manner in which he approaches his opponents, and the unique way in which he handles his subjects, in debate or oratory, reminds us of the David and Goliath affair of old. He is a man who is difficult to outwit, and we predict that he will appear in the political ranks soon. Probably instigating a third party.

MILDRED HALL, Upsilon Phi El Dorado, Arkansas

Society Officer, Four Quarters; President Society, '24; Vice-President Helen Hardy Bible Class, '24; "Star" Staff, '25; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '23, '24; Intercollegiate Debater, '24.

The question of being liked by her associates, of being happy and making someone else happy, and of a career, should not worry "Bill," because, "pleasant as can be," "happy as the day is long," and "bright as a dollar," are some of the many phrases which characterize her.

HELEN ALICE GRAYSON, Upsilon Phi Magnolia, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B., B.O.

Society Officer, Seven Quarters; Inter-Society Reader, '24; Member Women Students' Association Council, '25; "Oracle" Staff, '25; Intercollegiate Debater, '25.
The first thought that one has on meeting Helen is that she has a striking personality. There is nothing weak or vacillating in her make-up. She is generous, capable, impulsive, and so dependable that she is an open gate to responsibility. "She is clever, if not sage."

J. D. PUCKETT, Gamma Sigma Wewoka, Oklahoma
CANDIDATE FOR A.B., B.S.

Society Officer, Seven Quarters; President Society, '24; Inter-Society Orator, '23, '24; Member Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '22, '23, '24, '25; President Y. M. C. A., '24; Track Team, '23; "Oracle" Staff, '24.

"Always ready and willing to go.
Sometimes too fast, but never too slow."
"Precious things are often done up in small packages," and doubly precious is "Little Rudy" to the heart of Henderson-Brown. Everything he undertakes, from Y. M. C. A. to love affairs, is bound to be a success. The reason for his success is, "He is a MAN in the biggest sense of the word."

CORINNE BEVILL, Philomathean Arkadelphia, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B., B.M.

Society Officer, Two Quarters; Secretary A. B. C. Club, '22; President A. B. C. Club, '24; Las Brujas de Arena, '24, '25.

Smiling Corinne! She just couldn't believe that being a senior last year was enough, so she came back again this year. She leaves Henderson this year with two degrees, an accomplishment to be proud of. But greater than these is the host of friends she has made and the fond memories which will remain in the hearts of those who know her.

ELIZABETH WORKMAN, Upsilon Phi Arkadelphia, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

President Society, '25; President Arkadelphia Belles Club, '22, '25; Choral Club, '22, '23, '24, '25. What would we do without "Dutch?" There is not a more enthusiastic, loyal and sincere member of the Class of '25. She is capable, dependable, and always ready to do her part—and do it well. Being a good sport is one of "Dutch's" outstanding characteristics. But, with all, there is just reason for the Class of '25 to be proud of her.

WILBUR J. WHITTHORNE, Gamma Sigma Benton, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR B.S.

Football, '21, '22, '24; Track, '22, '23, '24; Captain Track, '24; Secretary "H" Association, '24; President "H" Association, '25; President Junior Class, '24; Vice-President Jack Tidball Bible Class, '25. Whithorne. Irish? Yes. Around the campfires of memory "Little Red" (as the girls love to call him), holds a stellar place. A demon on the track, joint-holder of the state record in the 100-yard dash, the smallest and fastest fullback in the state, student, friend, society man—where, O where may we find again so much energy in so small a mass?

VIVIAN LEE MOSELEY, Philomathean North Little Rock, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B., B.O.

Society Officer, Two Quarters; President Society, '25; "Oracle" Staff, '24; Dramatic Club; Inter-Society Reader, '23, '24; Winner Inter-Society Reading Contest, '24.

"How much one doesn't know of Vivian unless one knows her"—and yet, how lovable even casual acquaintances find her to be. Intelligent, clear-headed, sure of herself, she has the faculty of making people love her and of being a leader in whatever group or activity she is a member of. Knowledge comes easy to Vivian, and wisdom is a real part of her nature.

WILNA FRANCES WEST, Philomathean Plainview, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR B.O.

Society Officer, Three Quarters; President Society, '25; "Oracle" Staff, '22, '23; Inter-Society Reading Contest, '24.

If, perchance, you meet a traveler on life's journey who is an inspiration to faltering hopes; if she sympathizes with you and does not boast, if she advises and seems not haughty, if she exemplifies, but takes no honor, that pilgrim is Wilna. Quiet and unconcerned, she is a care dispenser and a ray of sunshine on life's highway.

JOE GRACEY STITT, Garland Arkadelphia, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR B.S.

Society Officer, Four Quarters; President Society, '25; Basketball Team, '21; Baseball Team, '24.

Every man has his ideal or ambition—the trials and tribulations which are the stumbling blocks in the path to the realization of that ideal are all forgotten long before the memory of the deed itself passes away. Those who survive are the exponents of strength and character. Joe Gracey has been prominent in societies, debating, athletics, and the making of friends. He has fought and "the laurels are to the victor." He numbers his friends by the leaves of the forest.

CLARICE CULP SHAW, Upsilon Phi Pine Bluff, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR B.M.

Society Officer, Three Quarters; "Oracle" Staff, '25; Secretary Senior Class, '25; Member Women Students' Association Council, '24.

It's those who say least and do most in this world that count, and the little things that need to be done but that others shirk, that show real worth of character. Clarice has the gift of expressing her personality and emotions through music—that accomplishment which soothes the hearts of men.

DAISY BELLE WEPFER, Philomathean Nashville, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR B.M.

Society Officer, Three Quarters; Treasurer of D. A. X.; President D. A. X., '25; Treasurer A. B. C. Club, '25.

Banish, O cares! Worry sits lightly on the head of this mind. She is all that her name implies, and literally rings to those with whom she comes in contact.

Symbolic of cheerfulness, hope, and accomplishment—that's Daisy Belle.

MCGEEHEE ATCHLEY, Gamma Sigma Arkadelphia, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR B.S.

Society Officer, Three Quarters; Chemical Laboratory Assistant, '24, '25

A quiet fellow here, causing no unnecessary stir about this college, but in the chemistry laboratory he is entirely at home. Mr. Leach has probably wished that McGehee's degree might be withheld, for such another assistant will rarely be found.

BERNICE NORSWORTHY, Philomathean DeWitt, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Eta Beta Pi, '25; Essayist, '25.

Henderson feels quite honored to have students come to her from other colleges. One of the seniors who did this is Bernice. She is pretty, yet unconscious of it. The shadows in her brown eyes make one want to delve into the mysteries. She is steady, clever, and lovable. In her two years with us she has won a big spot in our hearts.

MARY CATHERINE PATTERSON, Upsilon Phi Pine Bluff, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Society Officer, Five Quarters; Inter-Society Essay Contestant, '24; "Oracle" Staff, '22, '23; Henderson Scholarship Medal, '23; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '23, '24, '25; President Y. W. C. A., '25; Officer Life Service Band, Two Quarters; President Life Service Band, '23; Vice-President Junior Class, '24; President Helen Hardy Bible Class, '24; Delegate to Indianapolis Student Volunteer Convention, '24.

A lovable girl, one whose heart is pure and whose purpose in life is the highest—this is "Cat." Everybody in Henderson knows her and everybody loves her. Her dignity commands respect, and her good humor draws all into her circle of fine comradeship. She is interested in men.

NATHANIEL R. GRISWOLD, Gamma Sigma Sparkman, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Freshman Debater, '20; Inter-Society Crator, '23, '24; Intercollegiate Debater, '24, '25; Delegate to Indianapolis Student Volunteer Convention, '23; Delegate to Pi Kappa Delta Convention, '24; President Pi Kappa Delta, '25; President of Y. M. C. A., '25.

"Buddy" is the one to whom they all turn when they want a task done—in the real, genuine way. He is an all-round good student, in social work as well as in the classroom. He is proud to call Henderson his Alma Mater, and 'tis sure his college is justly proud to claim him as an alumnus.

EVELYN CANNON, Upsilon Phi Arkadelphia, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Society Officer, Two Quarters; Inter-Society Essay Contestant, '24; Member of the A. B. C. Club.

Evelyn is our scholar; few of us around Henderson have stuck so near the hundred mark. Perhaps because she is favored with a canon, while the rest of us have to be content with less powerful ammunition. Here is another to add to the successful group of "Arkadelphia Belles."

CARRIE JANE MCKAY, Upsilon Phi Lewisville, Arkansas

CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Society Officer, Four Quarters; Member Women Students' Association Council, '23, '24; President Life Service Band, '25; President Women Students' Association Council, '25.

Carrie is a jewel of rare hue. She came to love and lift. Her work for the Women Students' Association will long be remembered. She is quiet, thoughtful, and a very dependable friend, and being a friend herself, she has won many friends. We know that she will succeed in life, because she lives and believes that if you "give to the world the best you have, the best will come back to you."

JOHN G. GIECK, Gamma Sigma Heber Springs, Arkansas

CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

"Star" Staff, '23, '25; Charter Member Life Service Band; Charter Member Student Volunteer Band; Leader, Arkansas Delegation to Indianapolis Convention; Treasurer Arkansas Student Volunteer Union, '23-'25; President Arkansas Student Volunteer Union, '23-'24.

John has won a host of friends, because of his pleasant smile and good word for everyone. His influence among the students shows their respect for a real man. He has been with us a number of years, and by his "stickability," has shown the determination which will make him successful in the work which he has chosen.

WINNIE LEAH ALBRIGHT, Philomathean Plainview, Arkansas

CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Basketball Team, '22, '23, '24, '25; Captain of Basketball, '25; Treasurer Helen Hardy Bible Class, '24; President Helen Hardy Bible Class, '25; Member Women Students' Association Council, '24; "Star" Staff, '25.

Who is the girl with so much poise and dignity, mingled with sweetness and a touch of reserve in the Y. W. C. A. room, in the society hall, and on the basketball court? It is Winnie. What basketball team would not be victorious led by Captain Winnie? Whatever the "goal" she is seeking, she is sure to find it.

ESTHER THELMA HARTZELL, Upsilon Phi Stuttgart, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Society Officer, Four Quarters; President Society, '24; "Oracle" Staff, '23, '24, '25; Assistant Editor of "Oracle," '25; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '24, '25; Vice-President Y. W. C. A., '25; Delegate Federation Women's Clubs, '23, '24.

"To know her is to love her." Our "Thel," a flower of gold in the garden of Henderson, will build a house of happiness for all who see and know her. In tender spirit and gentle humor—in loving service and loyal support, few could equal and none surpass her. She will never be forgotten for the heart of Henderson is hers.

RUFUS WOLFF, Gamma Sigma Bingley, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR B.S.

Society Officer, Seven Quarters; President Society, '25; Football, '24; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '25; Treasurer Jack Tidball Bible Class, '25; Inter-Society Orator, '25; Business Manager "Oracle," '25.

"To live as gently as I can,
To be, no matter where, a man;
To take what comes, of good or ill,
And cling to faith and honor still."

Although Rufus tells little, he sees and hears much; he can always be depended upon. He has shown his ability, both in the classroom and on the athletic field.

EVALENA HUTCHES, Upsilon Phi Brinkley, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Society Officer; President L. S. B., '25; G. O. P. Club, '25.

Evalena, though very quiet about her work, has accomplished much during her three years in Henderson. Her ability is shown by her becoming a Literary Senior in three years. We hope she may be able to utilize her time in this way throughout life.

GLADYS BUTLER, Philomathean Murfreesboro, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Society Officer, Five Quarters; Junior Basketball Team, '22.

Gladys is another of those quiet girls who spends her time thinking and doing rather than saying. She is a splendid product of the history room, and a "shark" at many other things. One who is faithful, loyal, true friend—that is Gladys.

OSRO COBB, Garland Caddo Gap, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B., B.S.

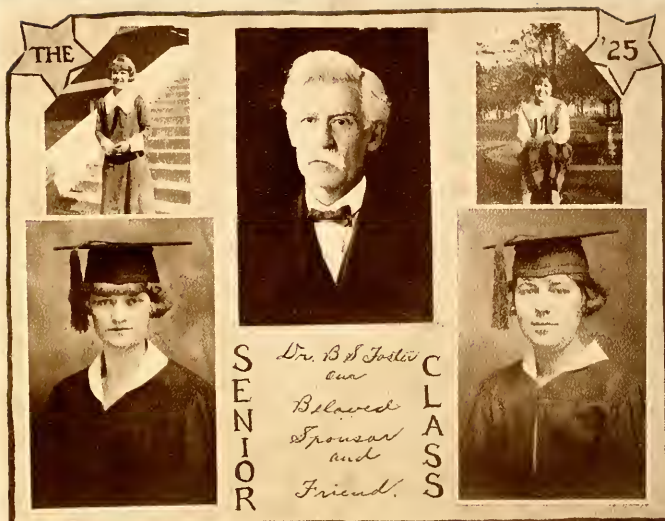

Society Officer, Seven Quarters; Oracle Staff, '20, '24; President Society, '24; Inter-Society Orator, '23, '24; Inter-Collegiate Debater, '23, '24; Debate Council, '25; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '25; Baseball, '24.

The instigator of the Republican Party is none other than Osro. With him as Montgomery County committeeman, it is easily understood why Coolidge was re-elected with another landslide. In this campaign, as well as on other occasions, Osro demonstrated his oratorical ability. Osro is especially noted for being a friend and serving the friendless. He is a good all-round man, and will be missed by his college associates when he goes to take his place in the world's work.

MARY LEE CHRISTIE, Upsilon Phi Emmett, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Secretary of Life Service Band, '23; Vice-President Life Service Band, '24; Oracle Staff, '24; Member of Women Students' Association Council, '24; Winner of R. B. F. Key Housekeeping Medal, '24.

Mary might be called the pep of the class. She always has a smile and a good word for everyone. She has a big heart and a big smile. Behind that smile is a determination to fight and win. From numerous reports we judge that she intends to change her name (?).

RUTH MARTIN, Philomathean Lincoln, Arkansas
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Attended Galloway College Three Years; Society Officer One Quarter; Student Assistant in Academy.
Ruth is sweetly serious, but in her eyes there is that merry look that presages a fund of wit and humor. It might be said that her outstanding characteristic is her outspoken honesty, and, although at times her frankness brings a hurt, it always proves to be a hurt to heal. Truly, her heart is as golden as her hair.

EDITH G. LEIDY, Philomathean Bermuda, Louisiana
CANDIDATE FOR A.B.

Society Officer, Three Quarters; Winner Inter-Society Essay Contest, '23; Winner Porter Scholarship Medal, '22; Oracle Staff, '23, '24; Assistant Editor Oracle, '24; Star Staff, '25; Y. W. C. A. Council, '24, '25; Women Students' Association Council, '25; Secretary Junior Class, '24; Delegate to Indianapolis Student Volunteer Convention, '24; Orchestra.

Edith's pleasing personality and intellectual ability have won for her many friends. Many honors have been bestowed upon her, and in fulfilling them she has given her best, and in return she has received the best of college life. With her high ideals and persistent efforts she adds to her class both strength and beauty of character. We wish her much success in future life.

Junior Class

LADY CLARE GARDNER Russellville, Arkansas

*"Her very frowns are fairer far
Than smiles of other maidens are."*

ELMER HOOD Blytheville, Arkansas

"For gain, not glory, winged his raving flight."

Never is a goal too remote, nor a star too high for him to turn his aim upon and attain it.

ELIZABETH HARRISON Fordyce, Arkansas

*"If ever you're in trouble,
If ever you're in doubt,
Just take it all to Liz—
She can help you out."*

It could not be a sin of discontent to wish that there were more like her.

ERSKINE ORME Hugo, Oklahoma

*"He smashes the plays of a heavy line,
He does his best every time."*

With him for captain, all the Reddies played their best.

BETTIE RIDDICK Morrilton, Arkansas

*"Of girl friends give me plenty;
Of boy friends, I care me one."*

Both of these she always has, not by the kindness of fortune, but by the sweetness of her own personality.

CUSTER KIDD Murfreesboro, Arkansas

*"What shall I do to be forever known,
And make the age to come my own?"*

Ambition plays a great part in the life of him who has been aroused to action, as it were, by the charm of the impossible.

MARY BILLINGSLEY Hope, Arkansas

"Her step is music, and her voice is song."

And more than that, for so sweet, so lovely, too; her whole life is one joyous refrain.

DOROTHY BUTLER North Little Rock, Arkansas

"She is carefree, happy, and gay."

Her whole being radiates the sunshine of joy and gladness; and cares, like the dewdrops, vanish at her approach.

FRANK JENKINS Gurdon, Arkansas

"I'm a bold, bad man—"

Since badness depends on boldness, he remains a man not quite bold enough to be bad.

HAZEL KANE Des Arc, Arkansas

"It takes all kinds of people to make a world, so we'll include you."

And by including her, there was accepted a girl who, of all kinds in the world, is of perhaps the best kind—one who makes the world a joyous place and makes life worth the living.

OLIVER ATCHLEY Arkadelphia, Arkansas

*"He holds no parley with unmanly fears,
Where duty bids, he confidently steers."*

'Tis good to find one who, though a youth, heeds Duty his mistress.

MIRIAM CUMMINS Little Rock, Arkansas

*"A smile for all, a greeting glad,
A lovable, jolly way she had."*

Her presence is as a spring day—refreshing and delighting.

NORMA VELVIN Valliant, Oklahoma

*"Happy, thoughtful, kind and true;
There is no favor she will not do."*

Norma is one who well represents her town, for she lives up to all that the name of her town, implies.

MARGARET HUIE NISBET Arkadelphia, Arkansas

"Oh, why should life all labor be?"

So for herself she saved her labors that the world might be made happier by the absence of one less worry.

BRUCE WRIGHT Gurdon, Arkansas

"With honest pride he scorns each selfish end."

Even his eyes would tell you that he's a better friend to all the world than to himself.

GERTRUDE COOKE Arkadelphia, Arkansas

"To be loved, be lovable."

She is truly lovable for Venus gave her charm, Minerva bestowed knowledge upon her, and Diana crowned her with maidenly modesty.

WILLIE GREEN Dalark, Arkansas

*"To be efficient in a quiet way,
Is my aim through every day."*

She is one who would never offend a friend nor insult an enemy, for her very quietness speaks of a trusting heart.

ELIZABETH COPELAND Camden, Arkansas

*"I mind for thoughts to pass into,
A heart for love to travel through."*

For Minerva and Cupid seldom work together.

JENNIE MAE WATSON Fordyce, Arkansas

*"Take it easy, have your fun,
And let the old world flicker on."*

She takes it easy, she has her fun, yet is never a tiny flicker behind the world.

PAUL GALLOWAY Arkadelphia, Arkansas

"An earnest worker, especially on the campus, yet withal a man."

One loves to think of him, because he is a "jolly good fellow," with all the other things thrown in.

BEULAH MAE MELLARD Eudora, Arkansas

"Truth needs no flowers of speech."

Yet, she is Truth, and Truth is a flower in itself.

MARY CLIFTON Hot Springs, Arkansas

"Too wise to be wooed."

For wisdom has ever been dual in its nature—knowing what and knowing what not.

HORTENSE HAMITER Bradley, Arkansas

*"Sweet are the thoughts that savour of content;
The quiet mind is richer than a crown."*

If it's music you want, get Hortense; if it's fun you're seeking, find Hortense; if it's a friend you're needing, trust Hortense.

EVA MARSHALL Mansfield, Arkansas

"It is not wise to be wiser than necessary."

"Tot" is a wise junior, knows what is necessary, and enjoys life.

OTTO TEAGUE Arkadelphia, Arkansas

"To know him is to trust him."

The juniors trusted Otto, even last Halloween, and he brought them victory. He's a man worth knowing.

AUDREY LEA KEATHLEY Danville, Arkansas

*"She's little, but she's wise;
She's a terror for her size."*

She may be a terror in some things, but she can surely make the ivories talk.

FERN McNABB Arkadelphia, Arkansas

"Why worry? Things are going to happen anyhow."

Optimistic? Always, or how could she make a success as a "school marm"?

LOUISE PRIDE Horatio, Arkansas

"Those who know her love her most."

For to those intimate ones she showed most truly a kind of earnest determination, a will steadfast and simple.

LILLIAN CANNON Stephens, Arkansas

*"Consider the lilies of the field,
I toil not, neither do I spin."*

Even tho' she neither toils nor spins, she is one of those girls who is always prepared and happy, too.

SAMUEL E. MONTGOMERY North Little Rock, Arkansas

*"In arguing, too, 'Red' owned his skill,
For though vanquished, he could argue still."*

Loquacity serves its purpose, as Sam has forever shown.

MALISSA CANNON Foreman, Arkansas

*"There are big bodies, souls, and hearts,
But here is the whole combination."*

God makes but few like her, yet was kind enough to send one of those few to us.

JEWELL COOKE Arkadelphia, Arkansas

"Be silent, or say something better than silence."

Because she believes that silence is golden, her words, too, have become golden in their purity.

JEAN CORRIGAN Junction City, Arkansas

"When Joy and Duty clash, Let Duty go to smash."

Where she is, there joy reigns and makes glad the hearts of her subjects, who are all who have once beheld the smile in her eyes.

The mist is dispelled when she appears."

The Conquering Tribe

THE YEAR 1924-25 brought back to the portals of Henderson-Brown a Sophomore Class whose chief virtue was in the triumphant possession of several graceful idiosyncrasies. There is little need to name them here, for they are time-honored attributes of this astute class; let us say that they are sophomoric and let it pass at that. Among this ensemble of peculiar and brooding traits, not one, it might be said, was ill-used. The whole, moving in majestic harmony, created a lambent flame of intelligensia, which, casting forth a luminous effulgence, set agog the brightest of the astral spheres.

From the beginning the class entertained no vast and disproportionate expectations, no ambitions impossible of attainment. For them there were no worlds to conquer—Alexander had conquered them all. But after all, there were continents to be explored and mapped out, continents of new thought and wider learning.

Toward the wider acquaintance with such worlds the class turned all its energies. The record of its accomplishments is unalterable proof of its zealous efforts and of their fruition. The dark and stormy sea of indefatigable toil bore on its translucent surface, beyond the bending horizon, sunny clad islands rich with the fruit of a virgin land. Infinite possibilities, ever widening vistas of opportunity, greet the explorer's eye, and broad, calm harbors invite the prow of his gale-wrecked vessel. The Sophomore Class is comparable to such an explorer. They have sought out new shores, have traced the skein of mighty sun-bleaked rivers, have journeyed resolute through the sullen gloom of waving forests and pressed on across the undulating plains whose boundless expanse offers to the eye not illimitable leagues, but unvalled universes.

In the years to come, they who have traveled so far that, infinite distances out there on the horizon, their eyes may trace the purple shadows of far-off mountain ranges beyond whose portals lie yet other seas and other lands worthy of the pioneer.

The far-off leagues of sea and land have called,
Not to adventure and wanderlust,
But to a heritage, a space unvalled
Beyond the limits of the universe.
To me they call, the winds of fate,
With promise of a kingdom that may be
Winds of my fate that thicken the gale
And blow my wandering bark across the sea.
And there I'll build me empires fairer far
Than any wrought by brains or toil of men—
But see beyond the dim horizon's line
The vision of a new world yet to be.

SHIP WITHOUT A RUDDER" might get somewhere, but its destination would be very uncertain. So, of course, the ship of enthusiasm, if allowed to drift at random, would waste itself upon the stormy sea and be of no benefit to the cause for which it was built. Campus activities take sudden turns and routes that are surprising to the most sagacious, and require a steady hand to steer them aright. The "detours" in the campus life of Henderson-Brown has been tactfully managed and overcome this year by the president of this organization, Elmer Hood, and his co-officers, Doris Owens and Louie Dickinson.

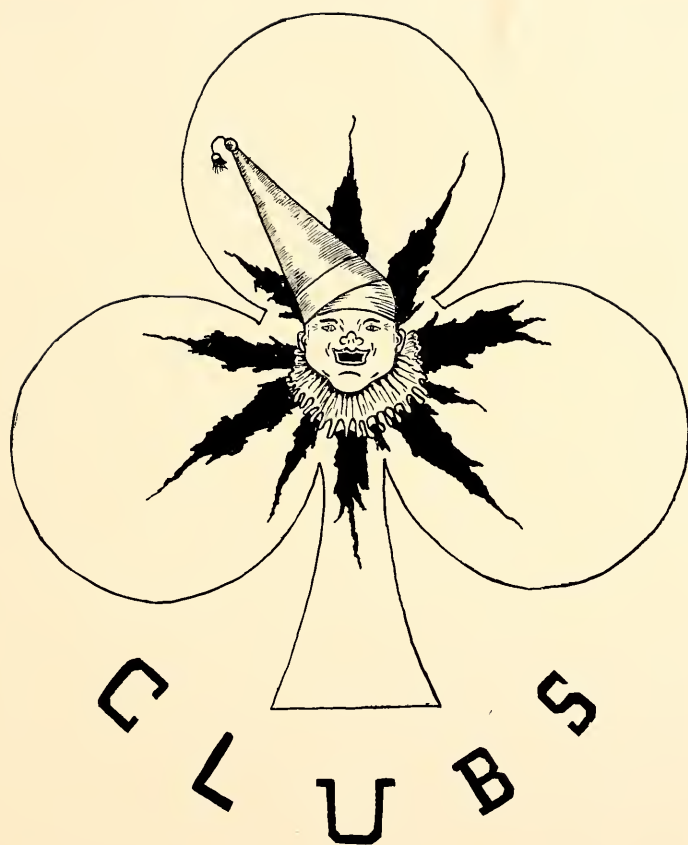

It is necessary to ascertain just who has been directly responsible for the valuable part of our enthusiasm, in particular. Those so-called yell leaders for the season 1924-25 were Hazel Kane, Vera Kinard, and Paul Galloway; they ably filled their positions. With their earnestness and vivacity they accomplished marvels with their cohorts of cheerers.

H. B. C. has got the pep and a little bit more. That "little bit more" might mean many things, but, briefly, it signifies the true spirit which every sincere, peppy Hendersonian has and holds. And because ours is a school "with a heart in it," and our athletes show their skill, some of the students were even prompted to assume the role of "human horses" Thanksgiving Day. They pulled a gigantic red and grey oval proudly across the football field. The float was a marvel of beauty alone, but girls, clad in red and grey, who tossed the colors of their school to their boosters, perfected the scheme which the Pep Association had fostered.

Every time the Reddies donned their togs and hit the line low and hard, that same spirit was manifested, though in a less spectacular manner than when our rivals from across the ravine were met. When they fought in foreign territory, those "wireless" messages meant the same unflinching loyalty as the audible messages sent out to the team on Haygood Field.

Variety is the spice of college life, however, so student efforts have never been limited to that form of athletics existing only in the Fall. There is a transplanting of that outdoor zeal and pep to the gymnasium where the Reddie quintet receives the whole-hearted support that the "eleven" had won. Then baseball and track claim their share of attention, and they get it, too—and it all issues from the same source. That inexhaustible enthusiasm also extends to the Reddies. They are important factors in this co-ed institution, and the record would not be complete without mentioning them and their splendid sportsmanship.

"There's Yale, and Princeton, and Cornell, Columbia, and Harvard—you know them well; but there never was a name like Henderson." We are truly proud of all the winning ability she possesses—in athletics, in forensic arts, and in scholastic attainments. Be it ever so difficult, the Pep Association will rise to the demands of the occasion, and retrospection of this year's accomplishments reveal that many obstacles have been overcome by the management of this organization.

The Expression Department of Henderson-Brown, in addition to private work and well-organized classes, maintains a dramatic club of real worth. Invaluable training is received through the efficient work of this club. It meets weekly, and interesting programs, which tends to lessen self-consciousness and to improve stage personality, are given at each meeting. The dramatic club also carries on the voice culture of the class and private lessons.

A number of interesting one-act plays have been produced by the organization this year. Especially worthy of mention are: Wrong Numbers, Sparks Divine, Mr. and Mrs. P. Roe, A Flower of Yeddo, The Traveling Man, and The Awakening.

Foremost of the dramatic club achievements this year, however, is the four-act play by Josephine Preston Peabody—The Piper. This production afforded remarkable opportunity for acting, training in costuming, scenic effect, and business management, for in all of these details experience is required for a well-rounded course.

Review of the Season

IN REVIEWING the football season of '24, with its mingling of hopes and disappointments, its victories and defeats, there is much to be said in praise of the Reddies, a team which, throughout the term of its gridiron activities, played under the handicap of constant physical injuries. Yet, they fought their way through a hard schedule and came out with a fair share of victories to their credit.

Only six letter men returned to bear the standard of Henderson-Brown through the autumn of 1924. Around this nucleus was gathered a squad of husky, powerful new men, and from this combination was evolved a machine, potentially powerful, but sometimes lacking in perfect cohesion.

The Reddies began the season in Nashville, Tennessee, with the Vanderbilt Commodores. In the past, Vandy has regarded this game as a mere practice scrimmage. This time, the Commodores were surprised and somewhat demoralized by the fury of the Reddie attack, and were forced to play an entirely defensive game. They were extremely lucky to score two touchdowns, one coming on a blocked punt. The score of 12 to 0, small as it is, is not entirely descriptive of how hard fought the game really was.

The next game of the season was played in Little Rock, on October 10, with the Russellville Aggies. The Wonder Boys came down to Little Rock expecting a hard fought game. This expectation was fully realized. The Reddies took the lead by scoring a touchdown in the initial minutes of the game. They retained this lead until the last few minutes of play, when a break gave the Aggies the ball and a touchdown. An unusually lucky kick for extra point after touchdown tied the score at 7 to 7, as the final whistle blew.

Next, the Reddies met the Austin College Kangaroos on the Texans' own "stamping ground." This game showed the real offensive power of the Reddie machine.

The Reddies pushed the oval across twice in the first few minutes of play, but injuries and lack of men caused them to wither before the rush of the Kangaroos in the last quarter, which netted Austin College three touchdowns and victory.

The Reddies celebrated their first game of the season on Haygood Field by trouncing the College of the Ozarks Mountaineers by the score of 27 to 7. Here the powerful driving of the Reddie backfield gained almost at will.

The Hendrix game, played at Little Rock October 31, was the greatest disappointment suffered by the Reddies during the season. Handicapped by a loss of men, due to injuries, breaks in the game, fumbles, and penalties on the part of the Reddies gave Hendrix two touchdowns and a 12 to 6 victory.

In consequence of the reverse suffered by the Reddies at Little Rock, the strong showing made by them against the State Teachers College a week later was doubly gratifying to the Red and Gray supporters.

At no time did the Normal threaten the Reddie goal. Their only point came from a 40-yard drop kick, which paved the way to a 19 to 3 victory for Henderson.

The following week the Reddies loosed the full fury of their attack upon the unsuspecting Panthers, of Arkansas College. The team was in good condition and worked as one man. Their efforts were rewarded with 81 points—while the most the Panthers could annex was a cipher.

The Thanksgiving Day struggle between the Reddies and their ancient foes, the Ouachita Tigers, a game hailed as the classic of Arkansas football, was one of the cleanest, hardest, and most spectacular game of a long series between the two rivals.

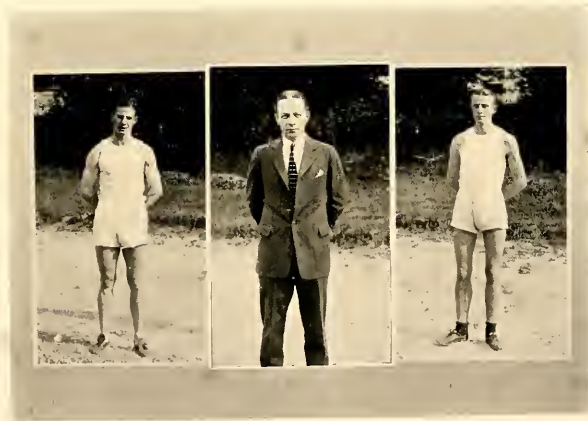

A clever aerial attack by the Tigers gave the Reddies the small end of a 12 to 0 score.

Just a few mileposts revealed by the "griping" editor of THE STAR as he coasts gayfully down the smooth, easy road toward the production of another STAR will show that at ten, or two, or twelve o'clock his lights are still burning and he is still as "dumb" as ever.

Millions of things pass through his brain each minute for about what seems to be thirty-six hours each day. Always, the thing uppermost in his feeble mind is THE STAR—will it ever be a reality?

You think you have studied, but when you are called upon to report at classes, "I don't know" is an excellent answer, in that it is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing else but the truth. Then you are glad that you haven't the eyes to see yourself as others see you, because you feel like—

When you stop to catch your breath and find yourself in the midst of a cyclone of "Why don't you do this?" "Why did you do that?" "You can't have the time today," "That is not important," you realize that you must move your office, you try to have an interview with the business manager and find that he is too busy relieving himself of too much cash on hand, you feel like throwing up your hands and saying, "What is the use?"

But when it is finished, you want to tell the whole world that it is done; that you have done your best under the circumstances, but if it were to do over, that you could give them a better job.

If you like this one, I am exceedingly happy; if not, turn back and read the foreword again.
